The Center for Women in Transition provides comprehensive wrap-around services for women reentering the St. Louis community from incarceration. Providing transitional housing, mentoring partnerships, basic necessities, case management, and more, the Center works to reduce recidivism and strengthen our community.

Volunteer Today!

On March 30th Center for Women In Transition will be holding their annual gala and auction. There are many different roles that volunteers can fill at this event. If you have any questions, please contact Linda Short at linda@partiesandprops.com or by calling 314-963-0880.
